

TURNING STRAW INTO GOLD

THE ART OF PLANETARY MAGIC

STORM CESTAVANI

WWW.STORMCESTAVANI.COM

Moving from Reactive Astrology to Proactive Evolution

STORM CESTAVANI

ASTROLOGER | PSYCHIC | TEACHER OF PLANETARY MAGIC

Storm Cestavani is a professional astrologer, psychic, and teacher of Planetary Magic, blending ancient magical traditions with modern psychological insights. With over two decades of experience, he integrates the wisdom of the Emerald Tablet, Picatrix, Agrippa, and Jungian psychology to help individuals harness planetary energies for transformation. As the host of the Curse Breakers podcast, the creator of Astro Magic candles and sprays, and a highly active practice and on-demand reading service, Storm's work empowers others to align with archetypal forces, influence fate, and master their own destiny.

Astrology Is Not a Weather Report

The Weather Report

Most people treat astrology like a forecast: they wait for the transit, brace for disruption, and view planets as outside forces pushing them around. This is a misunderstanding of the tool.

The Map of Becoming

Passive (Fear-Based): "What will happen to me?"
Active (Growth-Based): "How do I collaborate with this energy?"

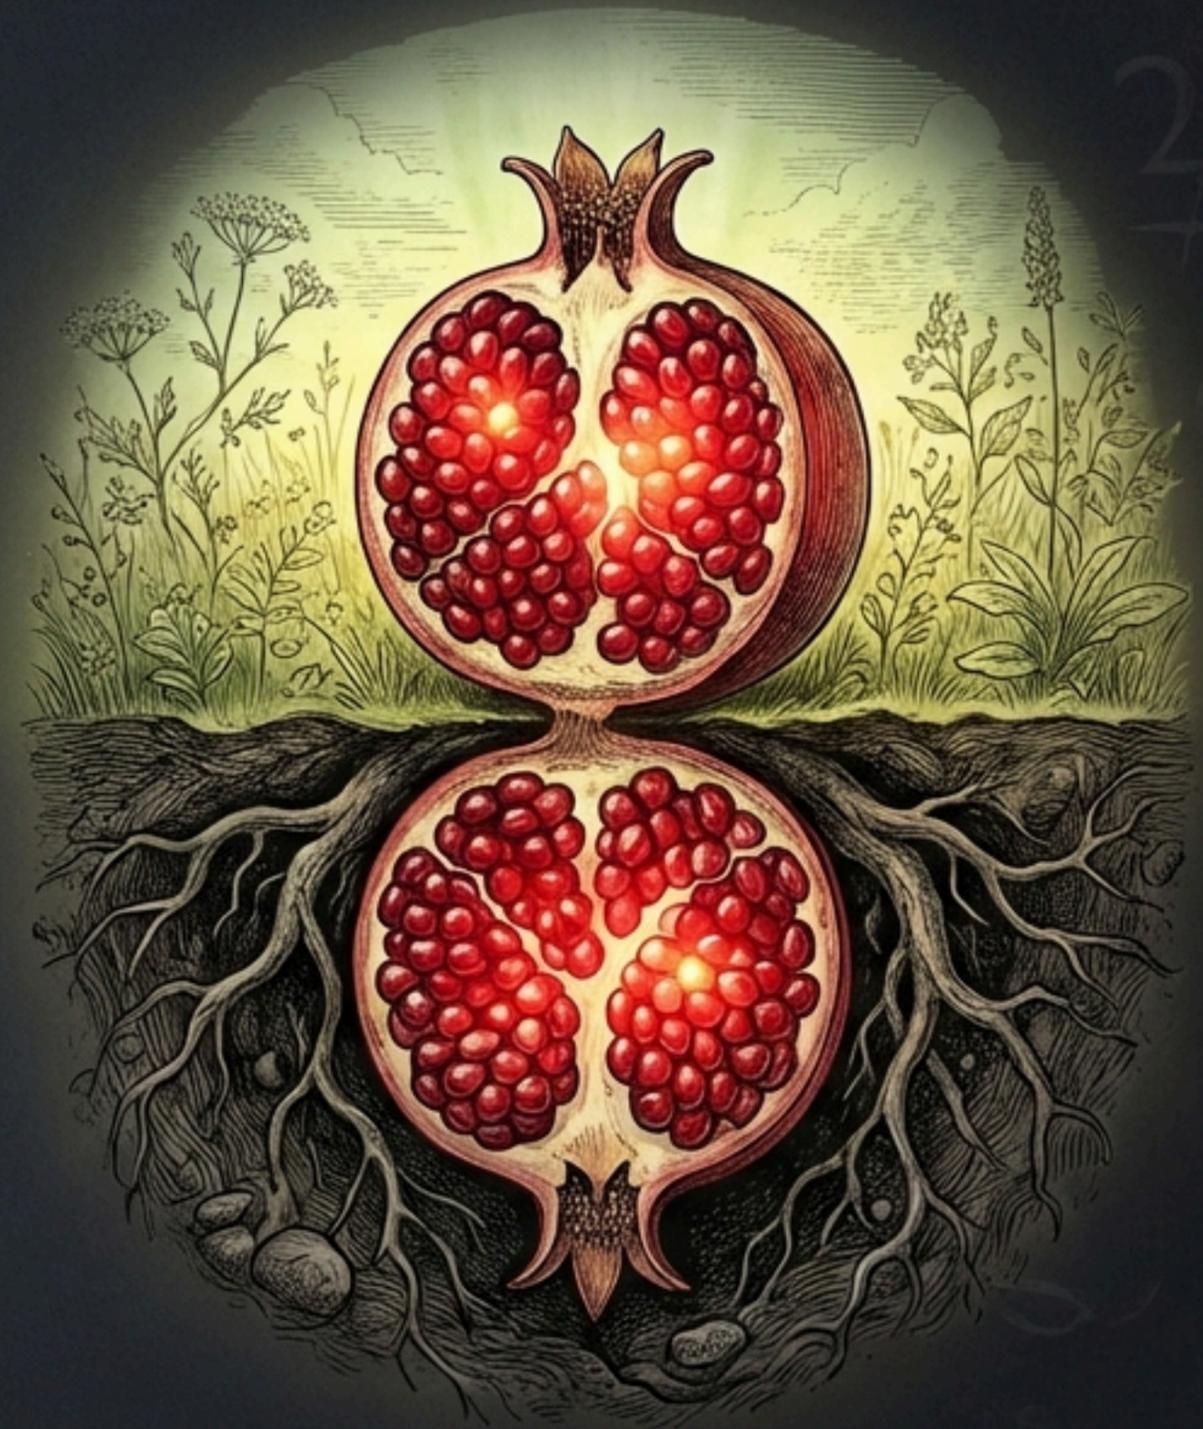

"Planetary magic is the moment you stop reacting to the archetype and begin working with it intentionally."

Myth I: Demeter & Persephone

Descent Is Not Failure; It Is Initiation.

The Narrative: Persephone begins as the Kore (Maiden) – protected and familiar. Demeter wants to keep her safe, but growth requires the underworld. Her descent is not a disappearance; it is a maturation.

The Lesson: She returns as a Queen, capable of living in two worlds at once. We often cling to safety, but the “underworld” moments in our charts are where we learn to govern our own lives. That is where power begins.

Myth II: Rumpelstiltskin

Naming the Pattern Breaks Its Control.

The Dynamic: The miller's daughter spins “gold” by force, but once she learns the trickster’s name, he no longer has power over her.

The Application: Difficult archetypes look like “straw” (insurmountable problems) until you name them. Awareness changes the dynamic from “victim” to “alchemist”.

The Hidden Superpower

Pressure Is the Beginning of Power.

Every difficult placement in a chart, every intense transit, and every moment of silence or overwhelm carries a hidden superpower.

The places you fear most in your chart are often where your greatest strength lives.

The Seven Living Archetypes

The classical planets are not abstract forces. They are psychological and magical tools you can pick up and use. We do not seek domination over them; we seek relationship.

The Psychological:
Inner work and mindset shifts.

The Magical:
Outer ritual and tangible action.

The Sun

Archetype: Identity & Visibility

The Psychological

Claiming Presence

Overcoming the feeling of being unseen. The internal declaration: "I am allowed to exist fully."

The Magical

Ritual Action

Working with gold candles. Sunday rituals.

Intentional acts that place you at the center of your own life.

The Moon

Archetype: Instinct, Emotion, Memory

The Psychological

Healing the Inner Landscape

Nurturing the parts of self that need safety.
Learning to move through emotion
consciously rather than escaping it.

The Magical

Ritual Action

Dream work and intuitive awareness.
Silver and white color magic. Rituals that support emotional grounding.

Mercury

Archetype: Thought & Communication

The Psychological

Naming the Pattern

Thinking differently to act differently. The 'Rumpelstiltskin effect': naming the problem to change the dynamic.

The Magical

Ritual Action

Journaling and scripting.
Speaking truth to shift energy.
Rituals focused on perception and clarity.

Venus

Archetype: Love, Worth, Harmony

The Psychological

Restoring Value

Healing self-worth and believing you deserve goodness.
Restoring harmony within the self.

The Magical

Ritual Action

Art and beauty as spiritual practice.
Intentional self-care. Reminding yourself that growth can be graceful.

Mars

Archetype: Action & Courage

The Psychological

Claiming Will

Reframing conflict as the courage to move forward. Channeling frustration into decisive movement.

The Magical

Ritual Action

Protection rituals. Physical movement and energy channeling. Acts of decisive action to break stagnation.

Jupiter

Archetype: Growth, Faith, Vision

The Psychological

Expanding Possibility

Trusting the process. Inviting expansion before life forces it upon you.

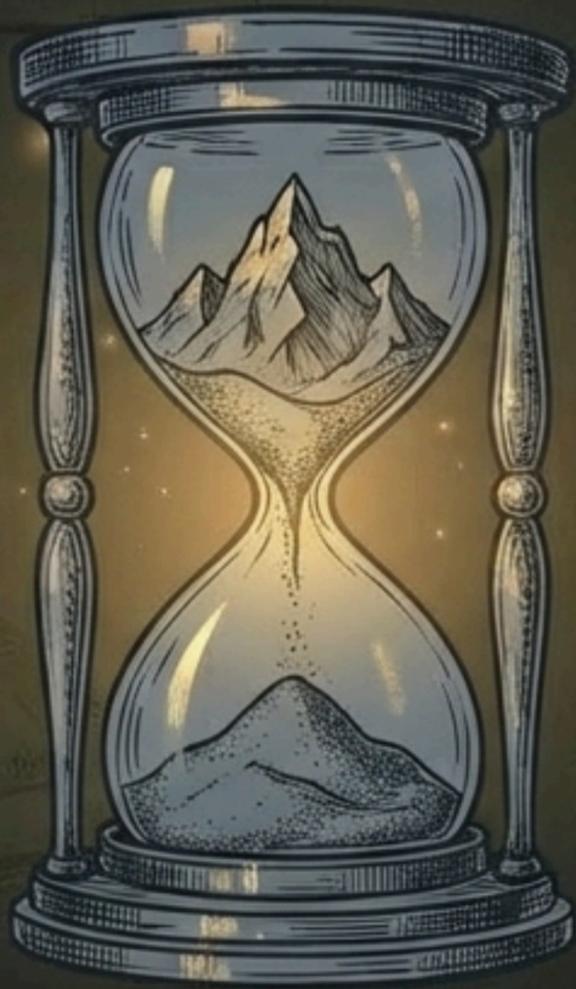

The Magical

Ritual Action

Prosperity rituals. Teaching and learning. Stepping into opportunities that feel larger than your current identity.

Saturn

Archetype: Structure, Mastery, Endurance

♄

The Psychological

The Architect of Mastery

Creating a container strong enough to hold your evolution. Turning experience into wisdom.

The Magical

Ritual Action

Boundary work. Long-term goal setting. Resilience rituals.

“You are not restricting yourself; you are building a foundation.”

Ritual
(The Action)

Transits
(The Timing)

Natal Chart
(The Doorway)

Working with the Map

- Natal: Look for the planet that feels heavy or silent. That is not your weakness; it is your doorway to power.
- Transits: Don't wait for life to push you.
 - If Uranus approaches: Initiate change.
 - If Saturn approaches: Build structure.
 - If Pluto activates: Release what is finished.
- The Ritual: Use planetary candles to anchor intention. The flame becomes transformation; the wax becomes manifestation.

The Sovereign Self

You are not fighting the planets; you are working with them.
Persephone taught us sovereignty through descent.
Rumpelstiltskin taught us power through awareness. The planets provide the method.

*Your chart is a map of where your hidden superpower wants to grow.
The straw is already in your hands—now spin it.*